

We Remember

2012 Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Observances

Monday, January 16, 2012

In celebrating his life and legacy each January, the Martin Luther King Birthday Observance Committees of Bergen County, Ridgewood and Glen Rock honor the memory of Dr. King. YWCA Bergen County has been proud to partner with these local committees to plan the following special events, which are free and open to all!

30th Annual Ridgewood & Glen Rock
Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.
Birthday Celebration

10:00 am Interfaith Service

11:45 am Rally

12:00 noon Community Lunch

Ridgewood United Methodist Church
100 Dayton Street, Ridgewood

This year's theme, "The Power of One, the Strength of Many," will be reflected throughout the program, which features guest speaker Rabbi Neil Tow of the Glen Rock Jewish Center plus local student speakers and musical performances by the Indian Hills Chamber Choir and Men of Umoja Chorus.

Martin Luther King
Birthday Observance
Committee of Bergen County

7:00 pm

Central Unitarian Church
156 Forest Avenue, Paramus

The 2012 celebration, "Voices to Help Us Heal," marks Dr. King's 83rd Birthday, and the 42nd year this committee has presented a program commemorating his life and work. At this year's celebration, Theodora Lacey, a Bergen County resident and former member of Dr. King's congregation will share memories of working with Dr. King in Montgomery, Alabama, as well as a vision on how we can realize his dream of a just society.

