Credit/Refund policies: Memberships are not refundable or transferable. Program fees may be refunded up to one week prior to the session's start OR if the YWCA cancels a program/class. After a session begins, a pro-rated YWCA credit will be issued for medical reasons only (physician's note required.) There is no class reimbursement for time lost during fire drills or emergency evacuations. Credits are valid for 1 year and may be applied to any YWCA class/program and used by any family member. Credits cannot be applied to membership fees. A $5 processing fee is applied to all credits/refunds; a $25 fee is applied to all returned checks.

Thank you for the following information. This helps the YWCA compile membership statistics requested by funders so we can continue to bring you quality, low-cost programming.
Response is optional, the information is confidential and is for internal/statistical use only.
