YWCA Thanks The Barclays' for Support

BERGEN COUNTY—The YWCA Bergen County hosted a “Thank You” breakfast in honor of Peter Mele, Executive Director of The Barclays. As a participating charity in this year’s The Barclays/PGA Golf Tournament, the YWCA provided volunteers and sold tickets to the event, which took place at the Ridgewood Country Club in Paramus on August 23–29. The YWCA Bergen County was the second non-profit to be named a Barclays beneficiary organization due to the efforts of YWCA board member Barbara Kiernan. Barbara is also the Chairwoman of Office Administration for The Barclays. This was the second year the YWCA participated in the tournament.

The Barclays staff joined YWCA staff and Barclays volunteers for a country breakfast and tour of the facilities, including observing several of the aquatics and child care programs that benefit from The Barclays’ support. Donations are made based on the number of tickets sold through the TICKETS Fore CHARITY™ program as well as the number of volunteers and hours worked during the tournament.
